Re: DeJesus v. Williams, et al.,
D. Del., C.A. No. 06-209-JJF

Dear Judge Farnan:

On January 12, 2007, State Defendant Warden Raphael Williams filed a Response in Opposition to Plaintiff's Motions for Injunctive Relief [Re: D.I. 41 & 42]. (D.I. 46). At the time of the filing of the Response, the undersigned counsel for State Defendant Williams did not have within her possession documents reflecting DeJesus's receipt of medical treatment and testing in late December 2006 and early January 2007. The Response, however, did state that DeJesus had received such treatment and testing during that period. (D.I. 46 at 6, ¶20). Since the filing of the Response, I have received documents that reflect DeJesus's receipt of medical treatment and testing in late December 2006 and early January 2007. The relevant documents are attached hereto and further support State Defendant Williams's position that the Court should deny Plaintiff's Motions for Injunctive Relief because Mr. DeJesus is receiving treatment and testing from the medical department at Howard Young.

The Honorable Joseph J. Farnan, Jr.
